

20 Litre Container AdBlue

SKU: HUN20-ADBLUE

Description

This high quality strong 20 Litre container suitable for AdBlue® is manufactured by hünersdorff and fulfils the highest safety requirements required. The container is stackable to save space and comes supplied with a spout (white) that when not in use is cleverly stored in a recess directly into the container's body. This is a great container that can be used and reused for many years.

It is ideal to keep in a vehicle in case the AdBlue® level becomes low. Please note this container is empty and does not come supplied with AdBlue®.
